The Brommel-Hanson-Ijams-Hayward Scholarship in Communication, Media and Theatre provides an annual scholarship toward tuition, books, and fees for one academic year to a top student majoring in CMT at NEIU. Undergraduate students who are juniors or seniors majoring in CMT and who demonstrate the potential to go on in the field of Communication at the graduate level, or who display the ability to reach the top of their field in media, family communication or another area of the communication discipline are eligible to apply. Applicants must be a junior or senior student enrolled full- or part-time (a minimum of six credit hours). Junior Applicants must have completed 60 or more hours at the time of application. Senior applicants must have two or more semesters remaining prior to graduation to be eligible (that is, they cannot graduate before August 2014). Preference will be given to female applicants.

The deadline to apply for this scholarship is OCTOBER 31, 2013. Completed application and additional documentation must be received by this date. Please send or submit all materials to
