The Brommel-Kramer-Barnitz Scholarship provides an annual scholarship toward tuition, books, and fees for one academic year. Undergraduate students who are juniors or seniors majoring in Communication, Media, and Theatre (CMT) at NEIU who demonstrate the potential to go into the field of Communication, Media, and Theatre at the graduate level are eligible to apply. Applicants must be a junior or senior student enrolled full- or part-time (a minimum of six credit hours). Junior Applicants must have completed 60 or more hours at the time of application. Senior applicants must have two or more semesters remaining prior to graduation to be eligible (that is, they cannot graduate before August 2014). Preference will be given to students who display an interest in Communication rather than Media or Theatre based on their academic transcripts of completed courses.
